9. Evaluation Of Quotations

9.1 General

All quotations received by the Company shall be evaluated in accordance with the evaluation criteria set out in this RFQ.

The Company may establish an Evaluation Committee comprising commercial, technical and HSE personnel, together with other specialists where necessary.

The Company reserves the right to seek clarification from any Bidder regarding its quotation. Such clarification shall not constitute an opportunity for the Bidder to materially alter its quotation.

Failure by a Bidder to provide clarification within the time specified by the Company may result in rejection of its quotation.

9.2 Evaluation Criteria

Quotations may be evaluated based on, but not limited to, the following criteria:

(a) Compliance with the technical requirements;

(b) Compliance with the commercial requirements;

(c) Completeness of the quotation;

(d) Relevant experience in similar projects;

(e) Qualifications and experience of proposed personnel;

(i) Financial capability;

(j) Total evaluated price.

The Company is not obligated to accept the lowest-priced quotation.

The Contract may be awarded to the Bidder whose quotation represents the best overall value to the Company after considering both commercial and technical factors.

9.3 Clarifications

The Company may request any Bidder to clarify its quotation.

No clarification shall alter the substance, scope or price of the quotation unless expressly requested by the Company.

9.4 Negotiation

The Company reserves the right to negotiate with one or more Bidders regarding commercial, technical or contractual matters prior to contract award.

Participation in negotiations shall not constitute any commitment by the Company to award the Contract.

10. Award Of Contract

Following completion of the evaluation process, the Company may issue a Letter of Award ("LOA") or other written notification to the successful Bidder.

The successful Bidder shall execute the Contract within the period specified in the Letter of Award.

Failure by the successful Bidder to execute the Contract within the specified period, without reasonable justification acceptable to the Company, may result in withdrawal of the award.

The Company reserves the right to negotiate with another Bidder or to cancel the procurement process.

11. Company's Reserved Rights

Notwithstanding anything contained in this RFQ, the Company reserves the right, at any time and without incurring any liability, to:

(a) amend, supplement or withdraw this RFQ;

(b) extend or shorten the quotation submission deadline;

(c) request additional information from any Bidder;

(d) request clarification of any quotation;

(e) waive minor informalities or irregularities in any quotation;

(f) reject any or all quotations;

(g) cancel or suspend this procurement process;

(h) negotiate with one or more Bidders;

(i) refrain from awarding any Contract.

No Bidder shall be entitled to claim compensation or reimbursement arising out of the Company's exercise of any of the above rights.

12. Conflict Of Interest

The Bidder shall disclose any actual, potential or perceived conflict of interest that could affect the fairness or integrity of this procurement.

For the purpose of this procurement, a conflict of interest includes, but is not limited to, common ownership, common management, participation in the preparation of the procurement documents, close family relationships with Company personnel involved in the procurement, or any other situation that could improperly influence the procurement process.

The Company reserves the right to reject any quotation where a conflict of interest exists or cannot be adequately managed.

13. Confidentiality

All RFQ Documents are confidential and shall be used solely for the purpose of preparing the quotation.

The Bidder shall not disclose, reproduce or distribute any part of the RFQ Documents without the Company's prior written consent.

The Bidder shall return or destroy the RFQ Documents upon the Company's request.

14. Business Ethics

The Bidder shall conduct its business in accordance with the highest standards of integrity, honesty and ethical business practice.

The Bidder shall comply with all applicable anti-corruption, anti-bribery, anti-money laundering and competition laws.

The Company reserves the right to reject any quotation or terminate any resulting Contract where fraudulent, corrupt, collusive, coercive or unethical practices are identified.

---

15. Sanctions Compliance

The Bidder represents that neither it nor its directors, officers or controlling shareholders is subject to any applicable sanctions imposed by the United Nations or any other authority applicable to this procurement.

The Bidder shall immediately notify the Company of any change affecting this representation.

16. Governing Law

This RFQ and any subsequent Contract shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Republic of Indonesia.

17. Disclaimer

This RFQ is issued solely for the purpose of obtaining competitive quotations.

Nothing contained in this RFQ shall be construed as creating any contractual relationship or legal obligation on the part of the Company until a definitive written Contract has been executed by both Parties.

The Company shall not be liable for any costs or expenses incurred by any Bidder in connection with the preparation or submission of its quotation.
